

KAUASKAIRA PRE-MISSION

And who do we have here?

All over the world, in Europe and in Finland we have many different minorities. Do you know to witch minorities you belong? What type of different minorities live in your locality? Baring in mind the importance to form friendships across the borders, together let's get to know to some minority. At the same time, think what is a minority? What different minorities exist? What type of connections do you find between your group and the minority group you choce? How should we take the minorities into account in different situation, for example in school, society, nations..? How could you take the minorities into account?

1. How do we all sound?

During every age, people have always been fond of music. Music is also very typical way to express the culture in different parts of the world. Get to know to different folk music types and organice a real music jury! If you can't hold still, let the music take you and move. At the same time think about the meaning of music in your own life and how the music represents the different cultures. We also want to know if there were surprise winners according to your jury and if the throat singing won it all. Tell us how it went and what were your jurys thoughts of the interesting creations of musical art works! #kajahus2019 #kuaskaira

2. And you are?

It's crafty time! You need glue, pencils, scissors, carton or thick paper size A4 and old magazines. First, draw yourself in the middle of the carton. Then think: Who are you? Who would you like to be? What makes you happy? Find comments and photos from the magazines and build a mosaic of them around your drawing. We want to see the awesomeness of the participants to Kajahus, so share your creation in social media! #kajahus2019 #kuaskaira

3. Finnish, Swedish and Scout

Think with your group, what are the first things that come into your mind when you think of the words: "Finnish", "Swedish" and "Scout". Compare your thoughts within your scout group and see if you have different opinions, and how many of them. Once you have made a note of the similarities and differences of your opinions, it is time to use them and make a small joke, a play or a sketch. Use these three topics in the same show! Is there something in scouts, that even Finns don't believe it's real? Do the scout habits surprise your friends in school? Show us, who scouting is just that right awesome hobby for you!
